Preamble

Recognizing the growing importance of interdisciplinary research in the fields of geopolitics, governance, and international policy;

Acknowledging the shared academic and intellectual interests between the Académie de Géopolitique de Paris (AGP) and the Faculty of Governance at the University of Tehran (FoG-UT);

And desiring to promote mutual understanding, scientific collaboration, and the development of joint initiatives between French and Iranian academic communities;

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) establishes a strategic partnership to facilitate academic cooperation, research collaboration, and scholarly exchange between the two institutions.

Article 1: Common Vision and Objectives

Both institutions share a commitment to advancing research and education in the domains of:

1. Geopolitics and international strategy
2. Public policy and governance
3. Global political economy
4. Regional and transregional studies (with emphasis on the Middle East, Europe, and the Global South)
5. Future studies, and global trends analysis

The objective of this MoU is to develop long-term collaboration mechanisms that enhance institutional capacities, foster intercultural academic dialogue, and contribute to policy-relevant knowledge production.

Article 2: Fields of Cooperation

To fulfill the above vision, the Parties agree to explore cooperation in the following areas:

1. Faculty and Researcher Exchange

- Short-term and long-term visits
- Joint teaching modules, seminars, and lectures
- Co-supervision of graduate theses or policy projects
